Schools Recommendation Schemes (SRS) are open

APPLICATIONS for Schools Recommendation Schemes (SRS) for study in 2015–16 are now open.

The aim of SRS is to help more Year 12 students gain access to higher education, especially those who might otherwise not be offered a place.

SRS enables schools to recommend current Year 12 students – who are also UAC applicants – for early offers of undergraduate admission.

UAC provides a single online SRS application for nine participating institutions for 2015–16 admissions. There is no additional charge to apply and, for a few minutes of their time, students can give themselves a chance of an early offer. Applications close on Wednesday 30 September 2015.

For more information about SRS, visit www.uac.edu.au/srs or call 1300 275 822.
