ABOUT

Established by the Commonwealth Government in 1946, the Australian National University (ANU) has a rich history and sets the standard in teaching, research and community engagement. As part of the Group of Eight, ANU is recognised as one of Australia's leading universities for education and is the only Australian member of the International Alliance of Research Universities.

Students at ANU engage with leading minds, learn from world class researchers and make global connections. The University counts six Nobel Prize winners and two Australian Prime Ministers among its staff and alumni.

The ANU campus is located in the centre of the nation's capital, Canberra. Canberra offers a vibrant, cosmopolitan lifestyle, with a high concentration of national museums and galleries, as well as cafes and restaurants. For the active, the capital is etched with bike paths and surrounded by stunning bushland. Facilities on campus include a wide range of accommodation, modern laboratories and teaching facilities, five main libraries, medical services, sporting fields, bookshops and cafes.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

The basic admission qualification for graduate courses is completion of a recognised Bachelor degree. Admission requirements vary depending on the course you're interested in. For any special requirements, check the individual course descriptions at www.uac.edu.au/postgraduate/course-search or the graduate coursework online handbook at <http://programsandcourses.anu.edu.au>.

Overseas qualifications and English proficiency

If you hold overseas qualifications from countries where English is not the standard language of instruction you must provide evidence of English language proficiency. Refer to the ANU Policy on English Language Admissions Requirements for students at https://policies.anu.edu.au/ppl/document/ANUP_000408 or on UAC's website at www.uac.edu.au/postgraduate/admission/elp.shtml.

SPECIAL/ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS

You may have to submit additional material as part of your application process depending on which course/s you apply for.

Check the individual course description at www.uac.edu.au/postgraduate/course-search to see whether special requirements apply.

Where do you submit additional material?

Check the individual course descriptions at www.uac.edu.au/postgraduate/course-search for details.

When do you have to submit additional material?

Submit your material by the date specified in the course description at www.uac.edu.au/postgraduate/course-search.

TYPES OF PROGRAMS AVAILABLE

The Australian National University offers a wide range of coursework programs at graduate level – Master, Graduate Diploma and Graduate Certificate.

Most graduate coursework programs offered by the University are offered through UAC and are listed on UAC's website at www.uac.edu.au/postgraduate.

Those graduate coursework programs available through direct application to ANU are listed on ANU's website at www.anu.edu.au/study/apply (including ANU College of Law – Legal Practice and GC Migration Law and Crawford School of Public Policy).

For information about all postgraduate courses offered by ANU, visit <http://programsandcourses.anu.edu.au>.

There are limited Commonwealth-supported places available at postgraduate coursework level and selection for these places is highly competitive.

ENROLMENT

Acceptance of offer

Offers are made progressively as applications are assessed for entry, with electronic offer notifications to be released from UAC. Successful applicants should meet any conditions of their offer and accept online at www.anu.edu.au/study/accept.

Enrolment instructions will be emailed six months prior to the commencement of your studies, or as your acceptance is processed, whichever is the later.

Advanced standing/Academic credit

If you have previous studies or professional experience that is relevant to your offered program, you can request to receive course credit or an exemption based on your prior learning. Students seeking status/exemption must complete an Application for Status (credit transfer form). Visit www.anu.edu.au/students/program-administration/program-management/get-course-credit-or-exemption for more information.

Deferment of offer

It may be possible to postpone commencement of an offered graduate program for up to 12 months. Deferment requests will be handled directly by ANU, not UAC. Visit www.anu.edu.au/study/accept/postgraduate-domestic-defer-or-decline.

FEES AND CHARGES

Tuition fees

Tuition fees are calculated on a per subject basis. For estimated annual tuition fees, visit www.uac.edu.au/postgraduate or visit www.anu.edu.au/students/program-administration/costs-fees for course fee information.

For the latest information, including loan and government scholarship assistance details, visit www.studyassist.gov.au.

FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

Eligible domestic fee-paying students enrolled in a non-research course may have access to the Commonwealth Government's FEE-HELP scheme.

For the latest information, including loan and government scholarship assistance details, visit www.studyassist.gov.au.

ANU Graduate coursework scholarships

ANU funds and administers a limited range of scholarships for graduate coursework study. It also administers a limited number of scholarships for which the funds come from sources external to the University. Further details of coursework scholarships are available from each College or visit www.anu.edu.au/students/scholarships-support.

COURSES AVAILABLE BY DIRECT APPLICATION

It is important that you distinguish between those courses for which you must apply through UAC and those for which you must apply directly to ANU. Courses offered through UAC are listed on UAC's website at www.uac.edu.au/postgraduate/course-search.

Apply directly to ANU for the following graduate coursework programs:

- College of Asia and the Pacific – Crawford School of Public Policy programs
- College of Law – Legal Practice and Military Law programs, and the Graduate Certificate of Australian Migration Law and Practice
- All bridging and non-award programs.

PREVIOUS ANU STUDENTS

If you have previously been enrolled at ANU in a graduate coursework program that is now being offered through UAC, you will need to re-apply for admission through UAC, unless you are currently on approved program leave. If you are on leave, log in to your student system to enrol in courses for the coming academic session. If your leave has expired/has been ongoing for more than two years, re-apply for admission via UAC.

Students who are currently enrolled in an ANU graduate coursework program who wish to commence another such program may be able to apply for a program transfer. Visit www.anu.edu.au/students/program-administration/program-management/transferring-between-degrees for further information.

INTERNATIONAL FEE-PAYING STUDENTS

International fee-paying students must apply directly to the ANU Admissions Office. For further information, visit www.anu.edu.au/study/apply.

ACCOMMODATION

For all accommodation enquiries, including information on individual residences, fees, financial assistance, disability or special requirements, or local private rental, contact the University Accommodation Services on uni.accom@anu.edu.au or visit www.anu.edu.au/study/accommodation.

If you list ANU as a UAC preference you are advised to immediately apply for accommodation. Do not wait until an offer of admission to the University is made.

Do not arrive without making prior arrangements for accommodation as there is no guarantee that suitable accommodation will be available.

STUDENT AND CAMPUS SERVICES

ANU has a range of student support services, including counselling, chaplaincy, academic skills and learning support, and employment and career advice. Campus facilities include a medical centre, computing centre, sporting and recreation facilities, and childcare centres.

ANU supports a variety of student clubs and societies so that students can get involved in campus life.

For more information on ANU student and campus services, visit www.anu.edu.au/students/services.

For students with disabilities and special needs ANU has dedicated support services. Contact Access & Inclusion on (02) 6125 5036 or at access.inclusion@anu.edu.au. Visit www.disability.anu.edu.au for further information.
