New institutions

SAE Creative Media Institute will be participating in SRS for 2016, making a total of 12 institutions as follows:

- Australian Catholic University
- Australian National University
- Charles Sturt University
- Griffith University
- Macquarie University
- National Art School
- SAE Creative Media Institute
- University of Canberra
- University of Newcastle
- University of New England
- University of Technology, Sydney
- Western Sydney University

Conditional offers

Some institutions will make offers of admission on Monday 5 December that are dependent on:

- applicants meeting course pre-requisites and/or
- achieving an ATAR specified by the institution in the SRS offer letter.

These offers are called conditional offers.

From this year, applicants may receive more than one conditional offer to course preferences they have listed at midnight on Monday 5 December 2016. However, they can only convert one of those conditional offers to an unconditional offer.

Applicants who receive more than one conditional offer need to decide which course to list as their first preference by midnight on Sunday 1 January 2017, after they have learnt if they have met any conditional offer ATAR requirements (when ATARs are released on Friday 16 December) and have also met any relevant course prerequisites.

Unconditional offers will then be made on Thursday 5 January 2017.

Change to school registration

UAC will send emails to relevant school principals when students submit an SRS application. The email will contain a link that takes the principal directly to the login page to access details of all SRS applicants from your school. Principals then need to advise their nominated rater to log on to SRS Rater and rate each student.
