EDUCATIONAL ACCESS SCHEMES

To apply for EAS you must be:

- able to demonstrate that your Year 11 and/ or Year 12 studies were negatively affected for a period of at least six months as a result of circumstances beyond your control or choosing
- a UAC applicant for undergraduate admission
- an Australian citizen, a New Zealand citizen or a permanent resident of Australia (including a holder of a permanent humanitarian visa).

Elite athletes and performers can apply for EAS but cannot apply for disadvantages that have arisen as a result of their sporting and/or performance commitments (eg being absent from school to train or compete or completing some or all studies by distance education due to training, practice and/or performance commitments). To have these commitments considered, contact the institution directly.

HOW EAS WORKS

If you're considered under EAS and your ATAR is below the required selection rank for one or more of your course preferences, institutions can increase your selection rank for those courses and make you more competitive for a place. But you are not guaranteed a place: you still have to compete against other applicants.

We cannot specify how many points will be added to your selection rank, but some institutions publish details of their EAS equity adjustments on their websites.

AUTOMATICALLY-GENERATED APPLICATIONS

We will automatically generate an EAS application for you (ie you don't have to submit an application) if:

- the residential address you enter in your UAC undergraduate application is identified by the Australian Bureau of Statistics as being in the lowest 25% of socio-economic disadvantage in Australia
- you currently attend a school on the S01R or S01C list.

In both these cases, we'll send you a confirmation email the day after you submit your undergraduate application.

To claim additional disadvantages, you still need to submit an EAS application, but you don't need to include details about the disadvantage covered by your automatically-generated application.

Your application can't be assessed until your supporting documents have been uploaded.

HOW TO APPLY

Before starting your application, check the eligibility criteria and documents required for each EAS disadvantage: refer to pages 4–16 in this booklet or go to uac.edu.au/eas.

- STEP 1 From the UAC website, submit your undergraduate application.
- STEP 2 Select 'Apply for EAS' at the bottom of the undergraduate application confirmation page or log in to your completed undergraduate application and select 'EAS'.
- STEP 3 Open the category of disadvantage you wish to claim. Select the specific disadvantages that apply to you and answer the follow-up questions. When you have selected all the relevant disadvantages in that category, click 'Save'. Repeat for each category you wish to claim.
- STEP 4 Acknowledge the alerts to UPLOAD DOCUMENTS.
- STEP 5 Agree to the Declaration and Authority and submit your EAS application.
- STEP 6 Download your Confirmation of Application and the document cover sheet for each of your claimed disadvantages. The document cover sheet details the eligibility criteria for the disadvantage and lists the supporting documents you need to provide.
- STEP 7 Upload completed cover sheets and supporting documents to your application at least two weeks before the undergraduate offer round in which you wish to be considered (or as advised in the key dates on the UAC website).

COMMONLY REQUIRED DOCUMENTS

Applicant statement

Complete the applicant statement in your own words. Provide all the factual details requested while being as precise and specific as possible.

Educational impact statement

An educational impact statement must be written by a responsible person (eg school principal, counsellor, year adviser, careers adviser) who can comment on the impact of your disadvantage on your education.

Medical impact statement

If you're claiming 'Personal illness/disability' (disadvantage code P01A), a medical impact statement must be supplied. It must:

- be completed by a registered health professional who is treating your medical condition/disability
- not be completed by the same person who completed the educational impact statement.

Documents not in English

You must supply a copy of:

- the document in the original language
- an English translation of the document.

Your documents must be translated by:

- Multicultural NSW (visit multicultural.nsw.gov.au) or
- a translator accredited by the National Accreditation Authority for Translators and Interpreters (NAATI). A list of NAATI-accredited translators in Australia and some overseas locations is available at naati.com.au or call (02) 9267 1357.

If you do not provide the required documents, your claim may not be assessed. For detailed document requirements, go to uac.edu.au/eas-applications.

It is not a record of absences.

Automatically-generated applications

After you've applied for undergraduate admission through UAC, we will automatically generate an electronic EAS application for you (ie you don't have to submit an application) if the residential address you entered in your UAC undergraduate application is identified by the Australian Bureau of Statistics as being in the lowest 25% of socio-economic disadvantage in Australia.

To claim additional disadvantages, you still need to submit an EAS application, but you don't need to include details about the disadvantage in your automatically-generated application.

Questions? Send an email to equity@uac.edu.au.

Please provide your EAS application number and full name in all email enquiries.

Application fee

There is no fee to apply for Educational Access Schemes, Equity Scholarships or Schools Recommendation Schemes, but there is a fee to apply for undergraduate admission through UAC. You should apply for undergraduate admission before midnight (Sydney time) on Wednesday 30 September 2020, as application fees increase after that date.

Your email address

UAC will email you about your application, so you must provide a private (ie not school-based), up-to-date email address when you apply. To prevent emails from UAC reaching your junk folder, add the domain uac.edu.au to your list of safe email contacts.

It is your responsibility to check your emails regularly (including your junk emails) for any messages from UAC.

Support for applicants with a disability

If you have a disability and are having problems with the UAC application process, call us on 1300 ASK UAC (1300 275 822) or (02) 9752 0200 from mobiles between 8.30am and 4.30pm (Sydney time) Monday to Friday or submit an online enquiry at uac.edu.au/contact.

Equity Scholarships applicants can email equity@uac.edu.au

School Recommendation Scheme applicants can email srs@uac.edu.au

We will help you with your application.

Confidentiality

All information provided by applicants is treated as confidential according to UAC's Privacy Policy and institution privacy statements. Only authorised personnel at UAC and/or institutions will have access to your application.

Your personal information can only be released to a third party in special circumstances, such as where the law requires it, or where you give permission.

All UAC applications require you to declare that the information you provide is true and complete and to authorise UAC to use your information for specific purposes.
