

EAS SUPPORTING DOCUMENTS

What documents do I need to provide?	The supporting documents you need to provide for each disadvantage you claim are included on the document cover sheet, which you can download when you submit your application, and are also listed on the UAC website: go to uac.edu.au/eas-disadvantage. Download a document cover sheet for each of your claimed disadvantages. Select the upload button to upload your document cover sheet and supporting documentation to your application. If you're unable to upload your supporting documents, photocopies can be submitted to UAC by post or in person once you've submitted your application. If you don't supply these documents, your application may not be assessed. All documents must be legible and easy to read.
What should I do if I've changed my name?	If you have documents under a previous name, you must supply evidence of your change of name, such as a marriage certificate, deed poll registration or other registration with the Registry of Births, Deaths & Marriages. The documentation must show your previous and current names.
What if my documents aren't in English?	You must supply a copy of: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - the document in the original language - an English translation of the document. Your documents must be translated by: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Multicultural NSW (visit multicultural.nsw.gov.au) or - a translator accredited by the National Accreditation Authority for Translators and Interpreters (NAATI). A list of NAATI-accredited translators in Australia and some overseas locations is available at naati.com.au or call (02) 9267 1357.
I don't have all my documents. Can I submit my EAS application now and follow up with my documents at a later date?	We recommend you submit your application and supporting documents at the same time. UAC can only assess EAS applications based on the documentation provided with your EAS application. Documents provided at a later date will be assessed however there is no guarantee the updated assessment will be considered in time for a particular offer round. Instead the updated assessment may be considered in (if any) subsequent offer round/s.
Can I get my documents back?	Hardcopy documents received by UAC will be scanned and uploaded for assessment and then disposed of as per UAC policy (visit uac.edu.au/privacy). They will not be returned to applicants or authorised agents. Softcopy documents you provide to UAC can be returned to you electronically (i.e. by email) for a fee. To have your documents returned electronically, navigate to the 'Forms' section at uac.edu.au/faqs, download and complete the 'EAS and Equity Scholarships document retrieval' form and post to UAC, Locked Bag 112, Silverwater, NSW 2128.
